The Millennium Transit

Presented by
Juli Boyle

Wednesday 23 February 2000

Venue: 1st Floor Auditorium, 30 The South Colonnade, Canary Wharf

Commencing at 5:15pm GMT

Talk synopsis

The Millennium Transit is a guided bus link to the Millennium Dome that uses an automated control system and guideway technology embedded in the road. It is similar to that used by emergency vehicles in the Channel Tunnel. The presentation gave an overview of the project and explained the technology used.
