Steve's wintertime talk

Presented by Steve Wilson

Tuesday 11 November 2025

Venue: Kings Cross & St Pancras Room, "Palestra", 197 Blackfriars Road

Commencing at 5:30pm GMT

Talk synopsis

The largest part of London Underground is not in fact - underground.

How does LU cope with conditions of ice, snow, fog, leaf-fall and the other difficulties of operating a surface railway in wintertime?

Speaker biography

Steve's first role at London Underground was as Control Equipment Engineer in the Rolling Stock department - part of Professional Services Group - based at Acton Works.
